About the Conference

The 1st National Conference on Intelligent Systems (NCIS'24) aims to bring together researchers, academicians, industry professionals, and students to discuss the latest advancements in the field of artificial intelligence (AI) and intelligent systems.

The conference will cover various domains of AI, from machine learning to autonomous systems, exploring how these technologies are transforming industries, societies, and future innovations.

NCIS'24 is the perfect platform to share knowledge, foster collaboration, and present cutting-edge research in AI and intelligent systems.

Honorary Chairs

Pr. Chahira Boulahia, Director of the University Center

Dr. Aissa Bouraoui,
Director of Institute of Science

General Chairman
Dr. Khalil ELBAZ

The 1st National Conference on Intelligent Systems NCIS'25

April 14, 2025

Call for Papers

We invite research papers, case studies, and project reports for presentation at NCIS'24 on the following topics:

Topic 01: Information Systems and Software Engineering.

Topic 02: Advanced Artificial Intelligence and Data Science.

Topic 03: Computer Networks and Distributed Systems

Topic 04: Cyber Security and Privacy. Submissions in other relevant fields of intelligent systems and emerging technologies are also encouraged.

Submission Guidelines

- The conference NCIS'24 will be held in hybrid mode.
- All papers should be presented between 03 and 05 pages. Articles should be in MS word or Latex and formatted according to the [\[NCS \(Lecture Notes in Computer Science\) formatting guidelines\]](#).
- All submissions for participation should be in PDF format.
- The authors should submit their abstracts (in pdf format) to the e-mail address: ncis@cu-barika.dz.
- Participants who successfully complete the abstract review process will receive a formal invitation letter via e-mail.

Important Dates:

- Call for participation: December 04, 2024
- Abstract Submission deadline: January 05, 2025, February 20, 2025
- Notification of acceptance: January 15, 2025, March 01, 2025
- Full paper Submission: February 05, 2025, March 10, 2025
- Conference Date: February 19, 2025, April 14, 2025
